Summary: A revision of my original Spartan Uzumaki challenge.

Spartan Uzumaki

Challenge

What if on October 10th, while running from a mob, naruto finds a hidden bunker in the forest of death and inside finds a unsc frigate with an AI, MJOLNIR mark VII, and was turned into a SPARTAN with Master chief for a teacher.

P.S how it got there? it was a failed experiment with forerunner technology that opened a worm-hole killing all organic flesh it came into contact with.

P.P.S if you accept the challenge send me a link to it.
